

GLORIOUS

by Christopher Tate, Jaclyn Azzopardi

Splendid God, Triumphant one
Released me from the abyss so dark
In my heart, You've parted the waves
Shattered the enemy
With Your merciful grace

You are so glorious
Beautiful God
You are my warrior
Ruler of my heart
You have cast out all darkness
All evil fled away
You're above all powers
As we declare Your holy name

Mighty God full of strength
You are our everlasting hope
Mighty God full of strength
You've prepared a place for us to go
